Former Resident Dies in Salt Lake

Mar 21 1953

Edwin D. Hatch, 64, Salt Lake City, died of a heart ailment Saturday at 1:10 a. m. in a Salt Lake hospital.

Mr. Hatch, who served one term as Wasatch County attorney, was educated in Wasatch County and at the University of Utah, from which he graduated in 1916. He studied law while working in the offices of a brother, former Judge A. C. Hatch, and was admitted to the Utah State Bar in 1924.

He moved to Salt Lake from Heber, Wasatch County, in 1927, and opened a law office. He held several positions in the Utah State Bar and at one time was chairman of that organization.

He was born March 10, 1889, in Heber, a son of Abram and Ruth Woolley Hatch. He married Veronica Burton in Salt Lake City in 1907. She died in 1929. He married Erma Snarr on May 12, 1931, in Salt Lake City.

Mr. Hatch served a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to England in 1909 and 1910. At the time of his death he was an elder in the Twenty-seventh Ward.

He is survived by his widow, Salt Lake City, three sons and a daughter, Mrs. Lucile Stamper, Alameda, Cal.; Robert E. Hatch, Santa Rosa, Cal.; Burton D. Hatch, Syracuse, N. Y.; Calvin S. Hatch, Fullerton, Cal.; a step-daughter, Mrs. LaRue Clark, Coalville; a brother and a sister, Vermont Hatch, New York City; Mrs. Aldora Browning, San Francisco, and 12 grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at 10:00 a. m. by C. E. Stoker, Twenty-seventh Ward bishop.

Burial was in the Wasatch Lawn Memorial Park.

EDWIN D. AND VERONICA B. HATCH

Edwin D. Hatch, son of Abram and Ruth Woolley Hatch, was born March 10, 1889, at Heber. He married Veronica Burton on June 19, 1907, and they were parents of five children, Luacine, Robert, Burton and Calvin, who grew to adulthood, and William, who died in infancy.

His wife died on December 26, 1929, and he married Erma Swan on May 20, 1931, in Salt Lake City. He died March 21, 1953, in Salt Lake.

Educated in Heber schools, Edwin D. Hatch later attended the University of Utah. He was called to fill a mission for the Church to England in 1910. On his return he went into the sheep business and at the same time carried on a study of law. He successfully passed the bar examination and began working on water, mining and legal cases with A. C. Hatch. He did much of the legal work in Uintah, Wasatch and Utah counties. He was always interested in politics, and served as campaign manager for J. Reuben Clark, Jr., when he ran for the U. S. Senate. With his wife he moved to Salt Lake City in 1929, where he lived until his death and is buried.
